ABOUT US

VANTSPIT is a Dutch restaurant which specializes in grilled chicken and opened the doors of the first venue in the summer of 2014 in the Clercqstraat in Amsterdam West. We are a company that is socially responsible, so we work together with a local farm from the south of the Netherlands. The farmer handles the chickens with love and care. VANTSPIT distinguishes itself by keeping everything homemade. It took almost a year to develop the perfect marinade for the chicken and it contains more than 30 herbs and spices. Also all the sauces we serve are homemade because we think that guests always taste it when effort and love is put into the products you serve. All our experienced spitmasters are trained to serve our guests the perfect chicken. We hope you will enjoy it! Team VANTSPIT
